SUMMARY

UI/UX Designer with a background in graphic design and hands-on experience across the end-to-end product design process, from user research and wireframing to high-fidelity UI, prototyping, and usability testing. Currently working as a UI/UX Developer, combining UI/UX and product design with front-end development (HTML and CSS) to take interfaces from concept to build. Skilled in design systems, interaction design, and information architecture, with a strong visual design foundation from earlier graphic design work. Experienced in translating business requirements into user-centered digital experiences, collaborating with stakeholders and developers, and working within agile, cross-functional teams.
